SUBJECT: ONE/ORR PUBLICATIONS FOR USE IN TR(S): 21/03/77 By:

1. The TR(S) Library has been removed from the distribution list of Special Estimates and National Intelligence Estimates published by ONE and Intelligence Memoranda published by ORR.

2. These publications are useful to TR(S). Special Estimates and National Intelligence Estimates are made available to senior personnel only and are used primarily as:

a. Guides in the implementation of long-term training policy on the choice of, emphasis on, and the mode of presentation of, specific topics in courses for staff officers of the Covert Offices. They are of particular importance in connection with the development of specialized and advanced courses for senior staff officers.

b. Guides in the formulation of short-term training policy decisions concerning the character and extent of training to be provided in special projects where the estimate may justify the inclusion or omission in a training schedule of specific subject matter. It may also affect the extent of coverage of particular subjects or the manner of presentation.

3. Intelligence Memoranda published by ORR are required for the following reasons:

a. The Training Development Staff and Specialized

Training Division of TR(S) require continuing access to these memoranda for the guidance in the development of new course material and the choice of cases to be prepared, sterilized, and presented in courses.

b. Senior instructor personnel of TR(S), in preparing tutorial instruction for staff officers, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] are required to study these Memoranda against the background of the specific directive which they have received in connection with the project, in order to insure that their presentations are appropriately documented and properly slanted. Much of the instruction in such cases, if it is to be effective, must be tied to specific area problems and current situations.

c. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Removed as they are from contact with current activities, it is necessary that by a study of these memoranda ~~that~~ they retain an up-to-date grasp of the problems and situations in the areas of primary operational interest to them.
